

Best Practices for Automation

Bizagi course

Table of contents

Best Practices for Automation	3
Description	3
Objectives	3
Topics	3
Recommended Audience	3
Duration	3
How it works	3
Requirements	3

Best Practices for Automation

Description

This online instructor-led course is designed to understand the best practices to automate your processes: the most important guidelines to model your data, the best practices for UI, and the most essentials guidelines to create Business Rules.

It introduces a series of tips and tricks to apply the best practices to automate your processes.

Objectives

- Understand an iterative approach to discover your data model associated with your processes
- Recognize the most important guidelines to have better data models
- Become familiar with the common problems of data modeling
- Understand the best practices associated with UI
- Highlight the most important guidelines to create Business Rules
- Identify the common problems in Business Rules

Topics

- Introduction
- Discovering your data model
- Guidelines to model your data in Bizagi
- Best practices associated with UI
- Guidelines to create Business Rules
- Anti-patterns for Business Rules

Recommended Audience

This course is aimed at professionals who are involved or interested in the development of process automation projects.

- Process designers
- BPM developers

Duration

6.0 hours

How it works

- The course is led by an expert consultant in Bizagi
- All sessions of the course will be performed on consecutive days
- The number of participants will be limited

Requirements

- Internet connection
- The session will be delivered using Adobe Connect. Check your computers and network connections using this Adobe Connect diagnostic test